

Railroad Ties

Disposal – Full-sized railroad ties are only accepted at the Regional Landfill. To dispose of railroad ties and other treated lumber at transfer stations or canister sites they must be cut into 2-ft. lengths. Railroad ties and treated lumber are not accepted as demolition material due to the creosote and other treatments infused into the wood.