FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

St. Louis County Auditor Service Center postpones Mall return until March

The St. Louis County Auditor Service Center, normally located at the Miller Hall Mall, will remain at the Duluth Courthouse a few weeks longer. Construction delays on its new space have caused the Service Center to delay its return to the mall until late March. The Service Center is the place to update driver's licenses and passports, purchase license tabs and conduct numerous other transactions.

The Service Center, which has been at the Mall since 2004, will be relocating to the south side of the mall between JCPenney and Younker's. Renovations on the new space began in January, but work has been slowed by cold winter weather.

In the meantime, the Service Center will continue to provide full service operations from the St. Louis County Auditor's Office, Room 214, of the Duluth Courthouse. Hours of operation at the Courthouse are Monday through Friday, 8 a.m. to 5:30 p.m.

As has been previously announced, the Service Center needed to move from its former mall location to make room for the arrival of Dick's Sporting Goods.

The Service Center has 13 employees and handles approximately 92,000 transactions each year. For more information, contact the St. Louis County Auditor's Office at (218) 726-2380 or visit www.stlouiscountymn.gov.
