INCIDENT SUMMARY:

Possible scam with asphalt paving company operating in the Fayal Township area. It has been reported that pavers are going door to door and giving an estimate for paving or overlaying driveways. In several cases the price was increased significantly after work was completed. It was also reported that the work was substandard and in some instances where party paid for one in a half inch overlay they could see parts of the old driveway after completion of work. Beware of door to door sales of asphalt paving companies and have them checked out prior to agreeing to any work being done. Pavers may also be working in the cotton area as well.
