Hibbing Courthouse features photography exhibit of local artist

The peak colors of fall may have just passed in the Northland, but anyone visiting the St. Louis County Courthouse in Hibbing will get a reminder of autumn at its finest. Noted local photographer Dr. Tony Kuznik is displaying several dozen large photographs on the first floor of the courthouse.

Many of the photos feature vivid fall colors, as well as birds and other wildlife from St. Louis County and the Arrowhead region taken last fall. Also part of the exhibit are “Faces from India”, featuring photos Kuznik took during a recent trip.

Kuznik is a past chair of the Arrowhead Arts Council, and served as president of Hibbing Community College for 17 years. He last displayed his photography talent at the Courthouse in 2009.

The St. Louis County Courthouse in Hibbing is open to the public Monday through Friday, 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.
