INCIDENT SUMMARY:

The St. Louis County Sheriff's Office responded to a 911 open line at an address on the Rehbein Rd on June 5, 2015 at 1:30AM. Upon arrival, deputies encountered two male suspects who ran into the woods after dropping numerous firearms they had stolen from the residence. Deputies were then able to speak with the homeowners who advised they had been held at gunpoint by the suspects and forced to open their gun safe. Deputies set up a perimeter and were then able to find and arrest one suspect attempting to steal a nearby neighbors car. The second suspect was found and apprehended by Sheriff's K9 'Diesel' after a track through nearby swamp. The males were identified as Sorenson and Rabold and have been booked into the St. Louis County Jail for first degree burglary and aggravated robbery. Additional charges to follow.
