BreAnn Graber hired as Budget and Business Improvement Manager

St. Louis County has hired BreAnn Graber as its Budget and Business Improvement Manager. In this role, Graber will assist with the planning, administration, review and oversight of the County's $330 million budget. In addition to work on the overall budget, Graber will manage county-wide projects, programs and strategic initiatives in this updated position in County Administration.

Graber previously worked for the University of Minnesota Duluth (UMD) as Management Analyst. Prior to that she was the Newsroom Operations Editor at the Duluth News Tribune. She holds a Master of Business Administration from the University of Minnesota, Duluth, and a Bachelor's degree from Gustavus Adolphus College.

St. Louis County employs approximately 1,700 people to serve its more than 200,000 residents spread across 7,000 square miles. To learn more about the services of St. Louis County, visit stlouiscountymn.gov.
