Arrowhead Regional Corrections Appoints New Superintendent at the Northeast Regional Corrections Center

The Arrowhead Regional Corrections Executive Board is pleased to report that following a rigorous search and candidate selection process, Phillip Greer has been appointed as the Superintendent at the Northeast Regional Corrections Center.

The Superintendent position was vacated by Kathy Trihey when she retired after serving as the Superintendent at the Arrowhead Juvenile Center and Superintendent at the Northeast Regional Corrections Center for 42 years.

A native of Colorado, and a graduate of Park University in Missouri, Greer brings over 25 years of corrections experience to the position. He started as a probation and parole officer, a senior corrections manager, a jail commander, a community corrections administrator, and most recently the chief executive of the Bernalillo County Metropolitan Detention Center in Albuquerque, New Mexico. Greer's proven leadership will be an asset to the agency and to the staff.
