DISABILITY STATUS:

A person with a disability is defined as:

1. Having a physical or mental impairment which substantially limits one or more major life activities.*
2. Having a record of such an impairment.
3. Being regarded as having such an impairment.

Major life activities include caring for oneself, performing manual tasks, walking, talking, hearing, seeing, speaking, breathing, learning and working.*

Note: Temporary, non-chronic impairment of short duration, with little or no long-term impact, are usually not disabilities. A visual problem which has been corrected by glasses is usually not a disability. Veterans who are rated as "disabled" by the Veterans Administration are not automatically "disabled" under this definition.

Based on the above information, do you claim disability status?

- Yes No

Do you have special needs which may necessitate accommodations in the test facilities or test process?

- Yes No

Please describe the type of accommodation needed:

Job accommodations will be considered on a case-by-case basis.

Accommodations will be based on the essential job function identified for the vacant position.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING APPLICATION FORM

If you do not provide complete information, you may receive an inaccurate score or be removed from further consideration. So that your application will be processed accurately, please do the following:

1. Fill out a separate application form for each exam.
Photocopies are acceptable. Sign and date your application on page one.
 - Part-time work experience is prorated to the number of hours worked, using a 40-hour work week as the standard for full-time work.

 2. Work Experience Section: For jobs with an experience and training rating, your score will be determined by an evaluation of the job related experience and training you describe on the application. (Only that experience occurring during the ten most recent years will be used in determining this rating. However, experience beyond ten years may be included on the application for purposes of meeting minimum qualifications. Be specific and complete.
 - To receive proper credit, list the five most important and/or time-consuming duties and the percentage of time spent on each for each position. Do not include unimportant job duties which are performed only occasionally.
 - Do not write "see prior applications".

 3. Your application and supporting material becomes the property of the St. Louis County Civil Service/ Personnel Department and cannot be returned. Work samples, letters of recommendation and the like should not be submitted with the application. However, you may bring such material to an actual employment interview.

 4. The only adjustments you may make on your application after the closing date for filing is your name, address, telephone number or availability information.
- List your present or most recent experience first, including all job-related volunteer and/or unpaid experience.
- List each promotion as a separate job, even though it may have been with the same department or organization.
- If you attach additional information sheet(s), include all of the information requested on the application, i.e., organization, position title, length of employment, total time, hours per week, major activities and percentages. If hours per week vary, please use the average number of hours per week.
- Resumés are only accepted if they are required per the job announcement. If resumés are required, please do not submit personal information, i.e., birthdate, marital status, activities, etc. This information will automatically be removed from your resumé.
