

Manure – Farmers may take full fertilization credits for manure to reduce the need for commercial fertilizers. Incorporate manure in order to recover all of the nitrogen available. Call the St. Louis County Extension Service at 218-749-7120 for publications and/or assistance with manure management.

Pet manure or “droppings” can either be flushed down the toilet or bagged and thrown in the trash.