FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

St. Louis County Auditor Service Center to temporarily leave mall

If you need to update your driver's license or passport, purchase license tabs or take care of any of the many other transactions conducted by the St. Louis County Auditor Service Center at the Miller Hall Mall, take note. The Service Center will be leaving the Mall temporarily and moving operations to the Duluth Courthouse.

The Service Center's final day at the Mall will be Friday, December 28. The Service Center will be closed Saturday, December 29, through Tuesday, January 1. It will reopen on January 2 in the Auditor's Office, Room 214, of the Duluth Courthouse. Hours of operation at the Courthouse will be Monday through Friday, 8 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. There will be no Saturday hours until the Service Center returns to the Mall, which is expected to take place in February.

As has been previously announced, the Service Center needs to move from its current location to make room for the arrival of Dick's Sporting Goods. A new location was chosen and construction and renovations have begun for the Service Center on the south side of the mall between JCPenney and Younker's, however unexpected construction issues have delayed the move-in date.

The Service Center has 13 employees and handles approximately 92,000 transactions each year. It has been at the mall since 2004. For more information, contact the St. Louis County Auditor's Office at (218) 726-2380 or visit www.stlouiscountymn.gov.
