INCIDENT SUMMARY:

St Louis County deputies arrested two people Sunday afternoon for burglarizing a cabin on the Whiteface Reservoir 35 miles north of Duluth. A neighboring cabin owner alerted the 9-1-1 Communications Center to the burglary and provided a description of the vehicle used. Officers stopped the vehicle a short time later and took the two people, one of them a Duluth resident and the other an Eveleth resident, into custody and jailed them in Duluth. They are expected to appear in court in Virginia later this week. The female arrested is also expected to be charged in an unrelated burglary case.

The arrests mark the third time in two weeks alert citizens have been instrumental in the apprehension of burglary suspects.
