Spring Transition Fair highlights community resources for NERCC residents

The transition from incarceration to “normal” life can be challenging and full of obstacles. To assist its residents and increase their chances for success, the Northeast Regional Corrections Center (NERCC) will hold its Spring Transition Fair on Wednesday, April 24, from 12:30-3:30 p.m., in the NERCC gymnasium.

The event brings in representatives of services such as housing; mental, physical and chemical health; employment; education; advocacy; parenting and more. Approximately 130 NERCC residents will meet with these representatives, connecting to services that can help them after they are released.

NERCC is a minimum level security facility serving more than 450 adult male residents each year, providing education, vocational training, cognitive reflection and self-change programming, chemical dependency treatment, sexual offender treatment, and mental health and physical health services. A division of Arrowhead Regional Corrections, NERCC serves St. Louis, Cook, Carlton, Koochiching, and Lake Counties. It is located approximately 12 miles from Duluth at 6102 Abrahamson Road in Saginaw.
