FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Mark Rubin to speak at Teen Challenge fundraiser

"The Good Samaritan Revisited" will be the topic of St. Louis County Attorney Mark Rubin's speech when he addresses the Iron Range Banquet and Silent Auction benefitting the Minnesota Adult and Teen Challenge program on Thursday.

The event will be held at the Hibbing Park Hotel, 1402 East Howard Street, in Hibbing. A silent auction starts at 5:45 p.m., with the dinner and program beginning at 6:30 p.m.

Mark will give his perspective on the benefits of community faith-based treatment programs. He will also share his experiences of working with victims of crime and speaking to inmate restorative justice groups at the Stillwater Correctional Facility. Restorative justice emphasizes the meeting of victims, offenders and community members to repair the harm caused by crime.

Among honors Rubin has received since being elected county attorney in 2010 are the Julius Gernes Minnesota State Bar Association Prosecutor Award for Excellence and the M.A. Johnson Distinguished Service Award from the Minnesota County Attorneys Association for demonstrating significant leadership and a commitment to striving to improve the quality of justice while increasing and enhancing public awareness of the county attorney's office.
