Sheriff's Office to hold swearing in ceremony for new hires

The St. Louis County Sheriff's Office will be holding a swearing in and recognition ceremony for new deputies, corrections officers and other new hires Thursday, June 5, at noon, at the Public Safety Building at 2030 N. Arlington Ave. in Duluth.

The ceremony will include the swearing in of six new deputies: Miles Bruggman, Warren Johnson, Jason Kuhnly, Jonathan Meece, Laci Silgjord and Jason Stoskopff. These deputies were hired last November and successfully completed the field training process this spring.

Additionally, 17 new corrections officers will be sworn in: Kayla Amundson, Mathieu Bonnelly, Anna-Marie Christenson, Percie Cole, Jr., David Ehrhardt, Kayleigh Fogarty, Chelsea Hendrickson, Lyle Hurd, Jacklyn Klassen, Richard Krivinchuk, Andrew Ludwig, Paul Mickelson, Jesse Miller, Chloé Respet, Trevor Tracey, Nathaniel Trebesch and John Wohlwend. These individuals all work at the St. Louis County Jail.

Thursday's ceremony also will include recognition of other new employees working in 911 Communications, the St. Louis County Jail and other roles within the Sheriff's Office. Recent promotions also will be recognized.

The St. Louis County Sheriff's Office is responsible for all law enforcement activity in the unincorporated areas of St. Louis County, as well as several cities; providing patrol, investigation, 911 and court services, as well as boat and water safety enforcement, maintaining the County Jail and Range Lockups, providing Emergency Management for the County and overseeing the St. Louis County Sheriff's Volunteer Rescue Squad. Sheriff's deputies operate out of regional offices in Duluth, Virginia and Hibbing, with additional stations in Ely, Mountain Iron and Aurora. To learn
