INCIDENT SUMMARY:

The St. Louis County Sheriff's Office has received several reports from residents of an AT&T scam. This scam starts with the suspect contacting resident by telephone and stating that their AT&T bill has discrepancies and that if the resident does not provide their name and address then their phone will be blocked by AT&T. Residents are urged not to give out any personal information and to contact Law Enforcement if needed. It is always best to ask for the company's published telephone number to confirm that the person you are speaking to is an actual employee.
